Dear Harold,

It was very good to hear from you and I do apologise for this late reply.

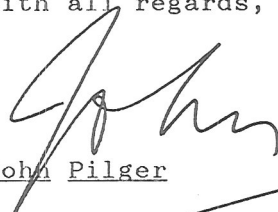

I also remember with affection our brief encounter New Orleans; and I always appreciated hearing what you had to say, and the information you had gathered about the Kennedy assassination. Whitewash accurately reflects your unstinting efforts to get at the truth.

I also remember that you were a supporter of Jim Garrison. You clearly have changed your view and that's fine; but I'm not sure if Garrison now deserves the merciless invective you heap upon him.

If I may stand back for a moment, it seems to me that the value of Oliver Stone's film - for all its faults - has been to inform many people that there was a conspiracy to kill Kennedy and a conspiracy to cover it up. Do you no longer believe this?

So we shall have to agree to disagree! In the meantime, I wish all power to your campaigning which, in its own way, has done so much to rescue contemporary history.

With all regards,

John Pilger
